

AmphoChem FORMULATION SCHOOL

Amphochem's Formulation School provides insight into product development, designed to reduce environmental impact and improve best practises to achieve sustainability.

The two-day event, undertaken in collaboration with world-leading suppliers of chemicals and additives, enables customers to extend their knowledgebase.

- Basics in surface chemistry
- Base formulations in different cleaning systems
- Special additives to enrich cleaning and formulations
- Analytical methods
- Alternative cleaning
- Environmental aspects and regulations
- Corrosion protection
